xt Friday night our literary society will organize permanently, and good people of the city are invited, as it promises to be interesting. The meeting will be at 8:30 o'clock at the John A. M. E. Church.

Ir. Ed Conley and George Washington, of Georgetown, are in the city this week, and will probably remain all winter.

Ir. Russell B. Turner, the head teacher at the Capital Hotel, paid a visit to the school last week.

Mr. James W. Lane, Bowman and Col. T. Clark and Edward and others, of Georgetown Sunday, had a pleasant time was had. The boys say they are in Georgetown.

The Lexington fair will begin next Wednesday and continue for two days. The people of this city will be in great style at the fair, as it is considered to be one of the most agreeable meetings they have ever had.

of our people who desire to see our country people in the fair, as it is a great opportunity for us to meet our friends, and should attend.

Ir. W. B. W. is expected for round trip.

There are a great many good shows booked for our city this winter. The managers of the Opera House have informed the writer that they are going to offer some better advantages to our people. If so, there are a large number of our people who have never attended, may have a good time at the fair, as it is considered to be one of the most agreeable meetings they have ever had.

The literary society will hold their meeting at the St. John A. M. E. Church next Friday. The meeting will be called to order at 8:30.

Ir. Alice Hearcy, of Chicago, is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Annie Thomas, this week.

Miss Woodruff, of Louisville, returned home Thursday.

DIED—Mr. Isaac Young was born in Frankfort, Ky., January 1st, 1830, and died September 1st, 1890. He was a good Christian man, and lived such a life as a member of the Watkinson Church; but for fifteen years a member of the G. A. R. Post. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his loss. His remains were largely attended by friends and relatives. Funeral by Elder Salle Sunday.

The following preamble and resolution were passed by Douglas Camp, 3, K. of F., upon the death of the infant son of Jas. W. Woolfolk.

HEREAS, We have heard of the death of Jas. W. Woolfolk, the infant son of Jas. W. and Nannie D. Woolfolk; therefore,

Resolved, That we tender our most profound feelings of sympathy in this view of their sad affliction, and a mark of respect to the family.

An Important Matter.

Drugists everywhere report that the sale of the Restorative Nervine—a nerve food and medicine—are increasing rapidly and steadily. They have, while it gives much satisfaction in headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, sexual debility, aches, poor memory, fits, dizziness, etc. L. Burton & Co., Troy, N. Y.; Barber & Murphy, of Battle Creek, Mich.; W. W. W. & Co., Fort Wayne, Ind., and hundreds of others state that they never handled any medicine which sold so rapidly or gave such satisfaction. Trial bottles of this great medicine and J. W. Gayle's, who guarantees and recommends it.

Fairview.

Mrs. Fannie Shay and family, of Lexington, are visiting relatives in this section.

Mrs. Bertha Hedges was the guest of Miss Fannie Crutcher and sister the first of the week.

Miss Ella Botkins is quite ill of pneumonia.

Little Harry Shay, of Lexington, who is visiting his grandfather, Mr. Anderson Powers, has scarlet fever.

A protracted meeting is being held at Hardinsville by Revs. Sampson and Jordan.

Rev. Geo. Darsie will begin a series of meetings at the Christian Church, Hardinsville, next Thursday, the 18th.

Mr. William Powers had a horse trade with his brother, James this week, the latter receiving $300.00.

M. B. Dorton and family, of Sandridge, are visiting friends and relatives in this section.

Mrs. J. L. Hearn, who has been sick for some time, is convalescent.

Rev. Frank Jordan will preach at the school-house September 28, at 3 o'clock. We want to see a large crowd out.

Mr. William Hisey, while returning from church last Sunday night, broke a spring of his buggy which disabled it very much.

Yesterday our school was on examination. The report will be in next issue.

Nerve.

There is nothing like it. It is the foundation of all action. The man of most success, the man without it is a failure. Many men and women are overworked, suffering with nervous prostration and longing for something to restore them again to vigor and health. There is one medicine that will accomplish the desired result.

Dr. Hale's Household Tea and Nerve Tonic, a great nerve prostrator, makes the weak strong, and gives nature a jog by putting all the organs of the system into a healthy condition. It is the finest remedy known.

EXCURSION.

The last excursion of the season will leave this city next Sunday, the 21st inst., for Louisville, under the auspices of the Main Street Base Ball Club. There will be a game of base ball in that city on that day between the coming champions of the American Association and the Athletics, of Philadelphia.

GLOOMY WEATHER.

This week has been remarkable for its gloomy weather, the sun scarcely having shown its face during the whole week. The Signal Service reports the first snow of the season at Fort Assiniboine, Montana, Thursday day. There is a good sized cold wave brewing in the north-west that is said to be moving in this direction, and our farmers would do well to look out for a slight nip from Jack Frost.

Tobacco growers go to R. K. McOlure's and get you a suit of oil water-proof slickers to out your tobacco in.

THE CONCERTS.

The Heine Concert Company gave two concerts in this city on Wednesday and Thursday, and, while not largely attended, they were extremely enjoyable. Mr. Heine's control of the violin is wonderful, and must be heard to be appreciated. Mrs. Heine, on the piano, was not far behind him in skill. Miss Heine, the daughter, also sang and played the violin. It was not to the credit of Frankfort that the Baptist Chapel was not full to overflowing, for a concert so excellent is very seldom heard outside of the large cities.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mailable matter.

Geo. A. LEWIS, Editor and Publisher.

FRANKFORT, SEPTEMBER 13, 1890.

Constitution Makers.

The Constitutional Convention met in this city at noon on Monday and was called to order by Gov. Buckner, when Hon. George Washington, of Covington, was made temporary chairman, and Hon. Thos. S. Pettit, of Daviess, was made temporary secretary, and Geo. W. Castle, of Lawrence county, appointed temporary sergeant-at-arms. By resolution, Rev. Dr. J. M. Lewis, of Georgetown, was invited to open the Convention with prayer, and offered an eloquent address to the Throne of Grace. Then followed quite a discussion as to the manner of taking the oath of office, which was finally settled that members must take the same oath prescribed for members of the Legislature, and Chief Justice Holt, of the Court of Appeals, was, by resolution, invited to administer that oath. The question was then raised as to the right of Hon. John W. Lewis, who holds the certificate of election from Washington county, to take his seat, his right to the position being contested by Hon. W. C. McChord. After a great deal of time was wasted in discussion, it was decided that he had a right to be sworn in, and all the members then came forward in parties of ten and had the oath of office administered to them by Chief Justice Holt, after which the Convention adjourned until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

On Tuesday the organization of the Convention was completed by the election of the following officers:

President—Hon. C. M. Clay, of Bourbon county.

Secretary—Capt. Thos. G. Poore, of Hickman county.

Assistant Secretary—Capt. Jas. B. Martin, of Barren county.

Sergeant-at-Arms—Robert Tyler, of Bullitt county.

Door-keeper—Richard T. Haley, of Louisville.

Official Reporter—Clarence Walker, of Louisville.

Official Printer—E. Polk Johnson, of Frankfort.

Sure to Go.

A member of the Constitutional Convention has said it and now we are sure to lose the Capital. Let us sit in sackcloth and ashes and pray that our greatest blessing may not be taken from us, and it may perhaps be that the heart of the aforesaid member will relent and he be induced to recall his dreadful words.

The fates have decreed that a package of envelopes shall be the turning point in Frankfort's history. After having enjoyed the society of the Legislature and Constitutional Conventions for nearly a century, to have them lost for such a trivial matter! But fate works strangely and its decrees must stand.

The cause of the wrath of the powers that be being hurled upon our devoted heads is this: Soon after the meeting of the Convention a member went into one of the stores in the city to buy a package of envelopes. For this he was charged ten cents. Turning wrathfully upon the salesman the great statesman disdainfully remarked: "Ha! That same package of envelopes can be had in Louisville for five cents. If that is the way you propose to gouge us we will remove the Capital to Louisville." And mark the man well, he will be remembered by future generations to be cursed and execrated as the cause of all our woes—the hateful salesman haughtily remarked—"Well let her go then—but ten cents please."

Grand Fall Opening.

The fall opening of novelties and stamped goods of Mr. J. W. Welch took place on Monday and was a complete success. The display was beautiful and the assortment of goods varied and attractive. All kinds of embroidery materials, finishing materials for fancy articles, silk for throws, table covers, &c., arrasene smyrnasene, chenille, rose silk, rope couching, filill, filo, riverense and various other articles were tastefully displayed in the greatest variety. A new feature, celluloid goods, were introduced and an elegant exhibit made.

sheets of celluloid, which are also in stock. In addition to all these a complete stock of white goods of all kinds are on hand, and it will do the hearts of the ladies good to drop in and see them.

Another New House.

Mr. John W. Gaul has begun the erection of another two-story frame residence on his lot on Cross street, adjoining the house occupied by Mr. W. G. Goodwin.

New Prison Physician.

Dr. S. E. James, who has been physician at the Kentucky Penitentiary for several years, was removed by the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners, and Dr. Hugh L. Tobin, the assistant physician, appointed in his place on Tuesday last.

Broke a Rib.

Mr. James Heeney was getting out of a bath tub at his residence, corner of Second and Shelby streets, Sunday morning, when his foot slipped and he fell over the side of the tub, breaking a rib on his right side, which has caused him so much pain that he has slept but little at night since.

Double Tracking.

The L. & N. is rapidly completing its double track from Louisville to LaGrange. The track is being ballasted with stone, and will be as fine a piece of roadbed as there is in the whole system. The business between Louisville and the junction of the Lexington and Cincinnati branches has become such as to necessitate the double track.

Fire Near the Forks.

The residence of Mrs. Eliza Trimble, near the Forks of Elkhorn, known as the old Chinn place, was destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock Monday morning. The house was a two-story frame and together with the out houses was totally destroyed. The flames spread so rapidly that very little of the furniture could be saved. The loss is about $3,500, with $2,500 insurance upon the house.

Good Openings.

The fall session of Dudley Institute, Prof. T. M. Turner principal, opened on Monday with an attendance of sixty-seven scholars—thirty-six young ladies and thirty-one young men.

Prof. A. Fuller Case's Male Academy also opened on the same day with thirty-four young men in attendance, and six more enrolled who came in later, making his school full.

Death of Capt. Newton Craig.

Capt. Newton Craig, a gentleman well known in this city, died at his home in Scott county, on Saturday, aged 83 years. He was lessee of the Kentucky penitentiary for several years back in the '50s, and represented Scott county in the Legislature of 1873-4. For many years he spent much of his time in this city during the sitting of the Legislature. His funeral took place Sunday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. J. M. Lewis.

Eloped to Jeffersonville.

Mr. Joe Goddard and Miss Gwinn, daughter of Squire Gwinn, all residing near the Forks of Elkhorn, this county, desiring to enter into a life partnership, and the old folks making objections thereto, eloped to Jeffersonville Thursday morning and were married by Squire Keigwin. The young couple returned to this city on the C. & O. train the same afternoon and departed for home in the hope of obtaining forgiveness.

New Committeemen.

The Democrats held their precinct election for the new County Committee last Saturday and the following gentlemen were elected in their respective precincts:

Gas-house—J. W. Gaines.
Court-house—J. R. Williams.
Market-house—L. Mangan.
Bridge-port—G. W. Hall.
Forks of Elkhorn—T. W. Scott.
Bald Knob—Geo. Harrod.
Flat Creek—Bennett Harrod.
Peg's Mill—Cal. Hayden.
Bloomington—Wm. Pickett.
Cedar Run—J. H. Thomas.

The Argus thinks either Mr. J. W. Gaines or Col. Thos. W. Scott will be elected Chairman when the committee meets, and as it is the party we su-

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

In Honor of a Noble, Christian Woman.

On the Sunday morning after the death of Mrs. Kate R. Venable, in this city, the regular services at the Presbyterian Church in Denison, Texas, of which she was a member, were dispensed with and a memorial service in her honor was held, at which an elegant eulogy was pronounced and the following resolution, which had previously been adopted by the session, was unanimously adopted by the congregation:

At a meeting of Session of this church, held Sabbath morning, August 3d, the following resolutions were adopted and ordered spread upon the minutes:

"We earnestly beseech our Gracious Heavenly Father to remove from among us our beloved sister in the Lord, Mrs. Kate R. Venable.

Resolved, In the death of Mrs. Venable, as a church, have sustained a loss which seems irreparable, she having been a member of the church in all Christian work." "Instant in season, out of season." "Rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer." By her, consistently was living a life apostolic, a worthy example to follow.

Resolved, We bear cheerful testimony to the right and activity in all church work; always prompt attendance on all services. No sacrifice seem too great if the Master's cause could be promoted.

Resolved, We extend our sympathies to the daughter and brother in this, their hour of affliction; commend to them the words of our Saviour, so often quoted and adopted by our dear sister, "Not my will, but thine."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent her daughter, Mrs. J. L. Duncan, and her brother, W. T. Reading.

Masonic Meeting.

Frankfort, Chapter, No. 3, Royal Arch Masons, will meet in regular monthly convocation on Tuesday evening next at 8 o'clock, in the Odd Fellows' Temple. As the regular annual election will be held at that time it is hoped there will be a full attendance of the Companions.

Immediately after the adjournment of the Chapter, Frankfort Council, No. 5, Royal and Select Masons, will meet for the election of officers, and it is hoped all the members will be present.

Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, Knights Templar, will meet in regular monthly conclave at their Assembly in Odd Fellows' Temple, on Thursday evening next, Sept. 18th, at 8 o'clock, on which occasion the order of Knight Templar will be conferred. All Sir Knights are requested to be present, and visiting Knights courteously invited.

Excursion to Cincinnati.

On September 21st to 26th the Queen & Crescent Route will sell round trip tickets to Cincinnati and return from all points between Somerset and Williamsburg at special excursion rates on account of the races on Queen City full mile driving club course. Tickets will be good for return until September 29th, allowing plenty of time for visiting points of interest in the metropolis. Rate from Lexington $3.20. The Queen & Crescent Route is twenty miles the shortest and quickest: Passengers landed in Central Union depot. Trains for the race course leave this depot.

Change of Firm.

Mr. Dudley Baker has sold his interest in the firm of Salyers & Baker, meat merchants, on Broadway, to Mr. A. G. Jeffers. The style of the firm will hereafter be Salyers & Jeffers, and the business will still be continued at the old stand. Mr. Jeffers has resigned as deputy sheriff, and pays his personal attention to the business.

Regulated With an Umbrella.

A colored woman created a sensation on St. Clair street, Monday evening about 7 o'clock, by following her husband down the street and whacking him over the head with an umbrella. Her conduct had displeased her and she took that method of remonstrating with him.

Broke Its Leg.

Mr. Walker L. Gault's porter was driving his delivery wagon down the hill on Logan street, beyond Cross, Monday morning, when the horse attached to the vehicle stumbled and fell, breaking one of its fore legs. The brute had to be shot to put Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from the first dose. She continued to use it and after taking ten bottles found herself well again. How does her own household and as well as she ever was.—First trial bottle of this great Discovery at P. H. Carpenter's.

Right You Are.

There is one feature of the reunion at Lexington on Wednesday last on which the Leader wishes to make special mention. The Kentucky Military Institute, of Farmdale, Ky., for so many years connected with the education and training of Kentucky youth, sent a company to escort to the village of the last General.

One thing that marked and emphasized this occasion of universal peace and kindly feeling was that in the ranks of the cadets were boys from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, from the Alleghenies to the Rockies. Two of the young officers were from north of the Ohio, and more than the warmest and well-merited praise.

The bright, manly appearance of the young soldiers; the firm, yet quite way in which they did their duty as guards, set to protect "beans upon a stretcher," and, above all, the appropriate gentlemanliness, elicited every smile, the warmest and well-merited praise.

On talking with some of these young gentlemen it was found that they hold it a point of honor among themselves to be quiet and polite, and to touch no living soul of any kind. This feeling, which is encouraged and fostered in them, raises the plane of manhood and gives tone to the plane of manners.

... is the best seen for a day, and the officers have just cause to be proud of the applause, shouted forth by the weather-beaten veterans and of the praises murmured over, lavished by cupid's corps—the Invincibles.

The manual was exact, in splendid cadence, and executed with a snap and precision that stamped the whole as approaching very nearly to perfection. The cold, critical eye of the experts was not deceived, and the carelessness in small matters of detail, and approval was forced from the most captious, when the stack and the different firings were gone through with. The evolutions were of high grade, and some of the double line movements superb.

Lexington's fair daughter, Miss Mattie Ely, a universal favorite among ex-Confederates, spurred the boys on to new efforts by wearing their colors as sponsor.

The Leader tenders congratulations to the superintendent, Colonel Boyd, and to Colonel Moore, the accomplished commandant of the cadets.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Delightful temperature last week.

Tobacco cutting in progress. The crop is much better than at first anticipated.

Mr. B. Lucas, wife and daughter, Mattie, and son, T. J., visited relatives in Woodford county last week.

Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen of our populace attended the fair at Paris last week.

Rev. J. Morgan Wells, of Fort Worth, Texas, preached at Providence last Sunday.

The Democratic meeting last Saturday resulted in the choice of Hon. T. W. Scott for county committeeman from this district.

Regular services at Buck Run today and to-morrow at the usual hours. The meeting will be protracted for a week or two.

Our school is now in full progress with C. H. Parrent and wife as teachers. The opening was better than any previous session.

County Superintendent Hunter and Rev. T. E. Utterback visited the school Thursday of last week.

Quite a spirit of improvement is manifesting itself in our village and vicinity. During the past month or two several structures have been reared, and still there is more to follow.

Mr. Calvin Greenup is now domiciled in his new house, having taken possession last Monday.

Mr. S. Hinde returned to his home at St. Louis last week. His short stay in our midst being occasioned by illness.

Mr. R. C. Church has about completed his half mile race track.

The recent heavy rains have been of great benefit to the farmers in enabling them to have their land broken, ready for seeding.

Mrs. Mary Hart died very suddenly Aug. 31, 1860, at her late residence in this place, aged 65 years. Her life as a widow she knew well, was consistent with the Christian religion. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Hiram Ford, after which the remains were conveyed to Lexington for interment.

Last Monday morning about 3 o'clock Mrs. Eliza Trimble's dwelling and attachments were discovered to be on fire, and before the necessary steps could be rendered the burning elements had gained such headway as to be beyond control. Consequently the whole structure was soon a mass of smoldering ruins. A considerable number of valuable articles were destroyed, notably a fine piano and book case, the latter being a valuable one. The loss is partly covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is not certainly known, supposed, however, to be caused by a defective fuse.

Mr. F. T. Flinchum, section boss on the K. M., together with his family, have taken up their residence in our burg.

Rev. M. T. Paradis and wife, of Illinois, are the guests of Mr. Howard Edman and wife.

Geo. Goddard has returned home from a two weeks' visit to relatives in Lexington.

Mrs. Naomi Ely and daughter, Miss Mattie, of Lexington, are the guests of Mr. J. F. Goddard and family.

Miss Eva Ladd, of Shelby county, is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mrs. Fannie Robinson and daughter, Miss Fannie French, of Covington, have been in our midst since last report.

Col. B. Frank Trumbo, the "Free Friend" of Big Edy, honored our village with his presence the first of the week as the guest of Mr. B. B. Bigstaff.

Dr. Breeding, of Glasgow, says: "My chickens are thrifter, healthier, and more beautiful plumage since I began using Gant's magic chicken cholera cure." For sale by Phil Carpenter.

LOUISVILLE TOBACCO MARKET.

FURNISHED BY GLOVER & DURRETT,
LOUISVILLE TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amounted to $3,133 hds, with receipts for the same period of 2,612 hds. Sales on our market since June 1st amounted to 10,357 hds.

The market for Burley tobacco this week has not shown any weakening tendency for the good grades in sweet condition, or for colored common grades, but common and medium grades without high color and all tobacco out of condition is somewhat scarce and we find it necessary to change quotations for such.

The recent weather condition have been highly favorable for the growing crop and its improvement has surpassed expectations, and with two weeks more of good maturing weather we would expect to see more than the usual quantity of good useful tobacco to be offered, but expect the crop to be difficult in high color.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco:

Trash (dark) or damaged tobacco..... $2.50 Q. $2.50

Common lugs not colored..... 4.00 Q. 8.00

Common lugs not colored..... 4.00 Q. 6.00

Colored lugs..... 8.00 Q. 14.00

Colored leaf..... 7.00 Q. 9.00

Medium to good leaf..... 9.00 Q. 16.00

Good to fine fillers..... 10.00 Q. 25.00

Select or wrappery leaf..... 25.00 Q. 33.00
